Chapter 1

Richard Coleman (born in 1590 Suffolk, England, died in 1650) British Father of Robert Coleman

The first step in this American Odyssey from Virginia to Warren County, North Carolina and beyond, started in England. Let us, therefore, first discuss the determination of the British father of Robert Coleman, (# 1.1), of Charles City County, Virginia, who was the first American “citizen” antecedent of the Coleman family of Warren County, North Carolina.

It is believed that Robert Coleman, born by approximately 1622 and who arrived in Charles City County, Virginia in 1637, was one of four brothers to arrive in Virginia from England.

Judge James P. Coleman in his book, The Robert Coleman Family from Virginia To Texas 1652 – 1965, identifies these four brothers as William, Robert, Thomas and Nicholas. The Honorable James P. Coleman was elected Governor of Mississippi in 1955 and is a well-respected genealogist.

In his book Governor Coleman states, “The author has found many printed references, from many sources of family traditions that Thomas Coleman, William Coleman, and Nicholas Coleman came to Virginia "together" and were brothers. It is understood that Nicholas Coleman later migrated to Pennsylvania. It is altogether reasonable to suppose that they came to join Robert Coleman, who was there by 1652 and equally reasonable to suppose that all four were brothers”.

It is inferred that if all brothers from a single family left England for America, there must have been insufficient inheritance to allow the oldest brother to stay behind. Thus, none of these four brothers would have been wealthy upon their arrival.

Since Robert Coleman was the first American antecedent of the Coleman Family of Warren County, it follows that Robert’s father, Richard, is the last fully British antecedent of the family. No record has been found that his father also immigrated to the new world. See Volume 1, Chapter 38 of this book, DNA Review for additional DNA information.

Richard Coleman, (# 1.), (born in 1590, Suffolk, England, died in 1650) is generally accepted by genealogists to be the father of four sons named William, Robert, Thomas and Nicholas Coleman, who immigrated to Virginia. The author has found, however, no original documentation of this father-son relationship.

It is also generally accepted that Richard married Rebecca Claiborne in 1613 in Suffolk, England. The author has found, however, no original documentation of this marriage.

Thomas Coleman (# 1.2) came to Virginia in 1655, Charles City County Court Orders 1655-1658, page 39, and nothing further is known of him.

William Coleman, Sr. (# 1.4) came to Virginia in 1655, Charles City County Court Orders 1655-1658, page 50.

Nicholas Coleman (# 1.3) came to Virginia in 1656, Charles City County Court Orders 1655-1658, page 51, and may have gone to Pennsylvania.

Robert Coleman's presence in Charles City County, Virginia, in 1652 is proven by the 5 November 1652, Charles City County Court Orders of 1655-1658, page 18. He most likely arrived at Farrar's Island, Virginia in 1637. Additional details on Robert Coleman can be found in Volume 1, Chapter 2.

Some genealogists believe that Richard and Rebecca Claiborne's son, Robert, was the Mobjack Bay, Gloucester County, Robert Coleman and not the Charles City County Robert Coleman. This belief is not correct according to Sherrienne Coleman Nicol, author of The Coleman Family of Mobjack Bay Virginia.

Sherrienne Coleman Nicol suggests that those interested in pursuing the ancestry of Robert Coleman of Mobjack Bay, should start with the Edward Colman of Suffolk, England whose will was proved in 1596.

Edward Colman of Suffolk, England, has a will recorded in Brent-Eleigh Parish, which names his grandson, Robert Coleman, as the son of William Coleman. Thus, it appears that the son of William Coleman of Brent-Eleigh Parish was Robert Coleman of Mobjack Bay, according to Sherrienne Coleman Nicol.

The search for additional documentation pertaining to these questions is ongoing. See Volume 1, Chapter 39, Author's Notes to Researchers, for additional information on Robert Coleman of Mobjack Bay, Gloucester County, Virginia, along with information on the other Robert Colemans in Virginia at that time.

Chapter 2

Robert Coleman of Charles City County, Virginia (Approx. 1622 – 1688)

Robert Coleman (Sr.), (# 1.1), of Charles City County was born by approximately 1622, came to Virginia prior to 1652 (most likely in 1637) and died in December, 1688.

Robert Coleman (Sr.) was likely the headright of William Farrar who received 2,000 acres in Henrico County Virginia in 1637 for importation of 40 people including Robert Coleman. Robert would have been approximately fifteen years old at the time of his arrival in Virginia.

Patent to Farrar's Island Plantation was granted by Governor John Harvey on June 11, 1637 to Colonel William Farrar II. The thirty-eight immigrants sponsored by William Farrar in 1637 to enter Virginia included, Baker, Wm., Brownridge, Math., Coleman, Robert, Crump, Giles, Dawson, Wm., Dimock, Martin, Foster, Eliza, Frame, Jon., Garner, John, Garner, Rich., Gibson, Jon., Greeke, Rich, Gyllom, Hen., Hares, Jon., Haynes, Mary, Hely, Jon., Hooke, Edwd., Howell, Henry, Howman, Jon., Howson, Edw., Johnson, Rich., Lewd, Rich., Peal, Jon., Penhorne, Christopher, Posey, Fr., Pratt, Jon., Price, Jon., Richardson, Wm., Rigsby, James, Roberts, James, Robinson, Patrick, Smith, Jon., Smith, Jon., Thomas, Wm., Towers, Wm., Turner, Robert, Waraner, Math., Williams, Tho.

Farrar's land grant, called Farrar's Island, is located within 5 to 9 miles of the 813 acre tract later purchased in 1649 by Robert Coleman from Lt. Col. Walter Chiles.

Some researchers believe that the property purchased from Lt. Col. Walter Chiles was located in the vicinity of the I-295 crossing of the Appomattox River (Lat 37.3127, Lon -77.3353) within 5 miles of Farrar's Island. Other researchers believe that the property was adjacent to the Appomattox River falls (Lat 37.2318, Lon -77.4204) within 9 miles of Farrar's Island. This 813 acres tract had been originally acquired by Walter Chiles in November of 1649.

The assumption that the Coleman property was near the falls of the Appomattox River is based on a related land grant in Patent Book I, Part 2, 1 Mar 1639: "To all to whome these presents shall come I Sr John Harvey... Governr.... graunt unto Walter Chiles fower hundred acres of land Scituate lying and bein in the Countie of Charles Cittie upon Apamattuck river Westerly upon the river Easterly into the woods Northerly upon the land of Edward Tunstall and Southerly towards the falls. The Said fower hundred acres of Land being due unto him the Said Walter Chiles as followeth.. fiftie acres for his owne psonall adventure fiftie acres for his wife Elizabeth fiftie acres for his son William and fiftie acres for his son Walter and twoe hundred acres by and for the transportacon of fower psons into this Colony whose names are in the records menconed Under this pattent To have and to hold & dated the first of March 1638."

This 813 acres tract had been originally acquired by Walter Chiles in November of 1649.

The tract was described on pages 186-187 of, Cavaliers and Pioneers; Abstracts of Virginia Land Patents and Grants, 1623-1800, states, "Walter Chiles, Gent., 813 acres in Charles City County, Lyeing upon the Southerly side of Appomattuck River, 200 acres thereof bounded North West upon the river, East North East upon the other dividend of 600 acres, a deep bottom parting it West South West unto a run of water that parteth this from land of Nath. Tatum; the other 613 acres beginning at the upward bounds of Mr. Tonstalls land, and West North West upon the river. 200 acres granted to William Sanders, 10 Oct 1640 and by him assigned unto Walter Brooke and by Brooke to William Thomas alaias Fluellin, and purchased by Chiles of said Thomas. The other 613 acres granted to said Chiles on 20 Oct 1642." This final, more accurate description, was preceded by one on 5 Nov 1648 which stated, "Walter Chiles, Gent. 813 acres in Charles City County. Confirmation of pattent dated 20 Oct 1642."

Since the land description is somewhat vague based on the inconsistency of the 1 March 1639 "Edward Tunstall" as compared to the 5 November 1649 "Mr. Tonstalls", the exact location of this 813 acre tract may never be known. What we do know, however, is that by 1717 the descendants of Robert Coleman (# 1.1) were acquiring land patents a few miles further to the west in what is now eastern Amelia County as per, "July 15, 1717. Land Patent Book 10, Page 339, WILLIAM COLEMAN. SR, (#1.1.4) granted 100 acres of land on the west side of Nansemond Creek in the county of Prince George". As mentioned earlier, this should have been recorded as "Namozine" Creek".

The history of Walter Chiles is interesting. He was a passenger in the ship "Blessing" out of Falmouth and was employed by William Harris and Nicholas Jollye (merchants) to be the assistant to the witness, HENRY TUTTON, then chief purser of the said ship, to help sell and dispose of their goods in Virginia. Chiles served on her from 26 September 1636 to 24 June 1637 and the ship stayed 14 weeks in Jamestown, Virginia. Chiles returned to England in 1637, and he and family emigrated to Virginia, reportedly in his own ship (which could possibly have been the "Fame of Virginia") shortly thereafter. Based on this voyage Chiles lists as one of his headrights in his first land grant of 01 March 1638, one HENRY TUTTON, his former boss, the chief purser on the "Blessing". Thus is the background of the landowner who helped Robert Coleman (#1.1) obtain his first property.

The conclusion that Robert Coleman of (# 1.1) was the head right of William Farrar is much more logical than the alternative of being the head right of Thomas Symons of James City County, who received 800 acres upon the Chichahominy River on June 8, 1639, for the transport of multiple individuals into the Colony, including a Robert Coleman. Thomas Symons also received a grant dated October 10, 1642, for land in that part of the Colony which was to become Gloucester County. See Patent Book I, Part II, Page 830, for information on this 1642 grant.

The 1639 grant information is found on page 30, Early Virginia Families Along the James River: James City County, Surry County, Virginia, by Louise Pledge Heath Foley, 1990. This 800 acre tract on the Chichahominy River is a considerable distance from the 813 acres purchased by Robert Coleman of Charles City County some five to nine miles from Farrar's Island.

It is thus concluded that the Robert Coleman of Thomas Symons' headright is more likely Robert Coleman of Mobjack Bay, Gloucester County, Virginia, due to the relative proximities of the headright holder's land grants compared to the indentured servant's later land acquisitions.

Now, getting back to Robert Coleman (# 1.1) of Charles City County, Virginia:

Robert Coleman's 1652 presence in Charles City County, Virginia, within a few miles of Farrar's Island, is proven in the Charles City County Court Orders of 1655-1658.

On 5 November 1652, Charles City County Court Orders 1655-1658, page 18, Lt. Col. Walter Chiles conveyed to Robert Coleman, 813 acres on the south side of the Appomattox River in Charles City County (now Prince George County, Dinwiddie or Amelia). "This indenture between Lieutenant Colonel Walter Chiles of James City in Virginia Esquire and Robert Coleman of the county of Charles City in Virginia aforesaid planter, for and in consideration of a valuable sum of tobacco and cask to him in hand paid, doth sell unto Robert Coleman all that his plantation and dividend of land containing eight hundred and thirteen acres lying in Appomattox river in the county of Charles City in Virginia".

On 29 September 1668, Patent Book 6, page 189, Robert patented 283 acres, Charles City County, part of the 2,000 acre tract, south side of Appomattox River, west end of Coleman's house and further stated that 207 acres of the tract had formerly granted to Mr. Walter Chiles and by him sold to said Robert Coleman Sr. This document further recites that 2 acres had been granted to Henry Leadbeater and by him sold to Coleman. Previously, on April 20, 1666, Henry Leadbeater had been granted 284 acres on the south side of the Appomattox, adjoining land of Robert Coleman, "where he now lives".

Some believe that this is the same land identified by Captain John Coleman, son of Robert, Sr., in his 1725 deed.

On 15 February 1677, Charles City County, 1677-79, page 279, a judgment against Robert Coleman in favor of Captain John Rudds for 470 lbs. tobacco.

On 24 June 1678, Lewis Watkins was awarded 193 lbs. of tobacco against Robert Coleman, Sr.

On 18 December 1688, "It is ordered by this Court if the witnesses to Robert Coleman's will do not appear at year next court and prove ye said will then they shall be fined as the law directs'. Charles City County Court Orders, December 18, 1688 at Westover, pages 181 and 225. This is the earliest documentation of Robert Coleman's 1688 death.

In September 1689, it was "ordered that the estate of Robert Coleman in the hands of Robert Tucker be inventoried and appraised". This is additional documentation of Robert Coleman's death. The Tucker family land (Robert, James and John) on Tucker's Branch of Namozine Creek was located just to the west and north of William Coleman's land. See Volume 1, page 43 for details.

Robert had four sons, Robert Coleman, Jr., Warner Coleman, John Coleman and William Coleman, Jr .

1. Robert Coleman, Jr. (# 1.1.1)

Documentation that Robert Coleman, Jr., was the son of Robert Coleman (Approx. 1622 – 1688) is provided by the 20 May 1663, Charles City County Court Orders, 1661-1664, page 500, in which Robert, Sr., conveyed to his son Robert, Jr., via a deed of gift, "Know all men by these presents that I Robert Coleman Senior of Appomattox in Charles City County do hereby these presents give unto my sonne Robert Coleman now Junior part of my land upon the south side of Appomattox River with all housing orchards fields and all privileges and because I know not the quantity of it, it shall be mentioned and bounded as follows the breadth of it upon the river shall be from the land of Robert Burgess down the river side to two marked oakes which stand at the west end of my dwelling house which trees are marked and lopped and from theses two marked trees it shall run along my cart path directly east into the woods along a slash side to a piney swamp and so to the outside of my land and all my land upon the south side of the east line to the land of Robert Burgess".

In addition, Robert Coleman, Junior received 450 acres for transporting nine persons to Virginia. This land was adjacent to his father's land. In Charles City County., 20 Oct. 1665, p. 435, (519), "450 acres S. side of Appomattox Riv., beg. at head line of land of Robt. Coleman, Sr., extending N.E. by N. &c. over the branch of Baylies Wly. run, S.W. along same & c. Due for trans, of 9 pers: Tho. Williams, Giles Dement, Wm. Cooper, Tho. Cooper, Tho. Palmer, Martha Jeffurd (or Jessurd), Mary Homes, Motshooto Turke, Phaugh Turke.

2. Warner Coleman (# 1.1.2)

Documentation that Warner Coleman was the son of Robert Coleman is provided by the December, 1688, Charles City County Court order, page 180 - Robert Coleman, Jr. is ordered to receive letters of administration on the estate of Warner Coleman.

Additional documentation that Warner Coleman was the son of Robert Coleman is provided by the September, 1689, Charles City County Court order, page 242, in which Francis Tucker was appointed the Administrator of the Estate of Warner Coleman, deceased. Francis Coleman and Jarvis Dix made his bond in the amount of 50,000 pounds of tobacco and the goods and chattels were directed forthwith to be delivered to Francis Tucker. It should be noted that at the same time Robert Tucker had charge of the estate of Robert Coleman, Sr.

3. John Coleman (# 1.1.3)

John Coleman's parentage is as per The Ligon Family, Volume I, 1947, by William D. Ligon, Jr. See Pg. 383 & 384. This information was determined through Deed Book 1713-28 p. 834: Indenture 10 May 1725 between John Coleman and Mary his wife of the county of Prince George and Robert Munford, 208 acres on south side Appomattox in Parish of Bristol. Twelve acres were conveyed to said Coleman by Robert Tucker 3 March 1701 and residue granted to Robert Coleman, father to John Coleman, 29 September 1668. Signed John Coleman (sealed with a wafer) Mary Coleman (sealed with a wafer). Witnesses: Charles Roberts, John Mayes, Isham Epes.

Additional documentation that John Coleman was the son of Robert Coleman is provided by the 18 December 1688, Charles City County Court order – John the orphan of Robert Coleman chooses his brother Robert Coleman his guardian Charles City County Court Orders at Westover, page 180 and by – 10 May 1725, Deed of Lease by John Coleman, and Mary his wife to Robert Munford proves the relationship between John and his father Robert Coleman – the residue thereof is part of a tract of land granted to Robert Coleman deceased father of the said John Coleman by patent dated the twenty ninth day of September in the year of our lord one thousand six hundred sixty eight, Prince George County, Virginia, Wills and Deeds 1713 – 1728, Pages 634-636.

Mary Ligon, youngest child of Richard and Mary (Worsham) Ligon, was born about 1694. She was not a daughter of Mathew Ligon, son of Richard and Mary (Worsham) Ligon, as her daughter, Mary Ligon Coleman, was born about the same time that Mathews Ligon's children were born. She and Mathew Ligon were brother and sister.

Mary Ligon married Captain John Coleman (# 1.1.3) son of Robert Coleman (# 1.1) about 1714/ 19. This marriage date is placed at approximately this time, since John Coleman had servant's age adjudged in 1719, and it can be surmised that he was head of the marriage establishment.

Evidently John and Mary Coleman died before 1749, and their daughter, Mary Ligon Coleman, moved to Cumberland County and lived with her guardian, Mathew Ligon, Sr., to whom she gave the release of all claim etc., in 1749.

June 8, 1714, Prince George County, Virginia, Deed Book 1713·1728, p. 16:, indenture between John Coleman and Robert Munford, 1400 lbs. tobacco and 10 shilling sterling, 10 acres beginning on the dividing line between the said Coleman and Munford on the river to a corner red oak standing on the Sandy Hill southeast to a small corner pine stancling in said John Coleman's old fteld on the new road that leads to the Chapel, thence down the road to the dividing line to a small oak marked three ways.

December 8, 1715, Robert Boiling surveyed 313 acres on the South side of the Appomattox River at the Horse Pen Branch for Captain John Coleman. This land was not patented to John Coleman until July 9, 1724. The surveyor's entry thus shows that John Coleman was known by the name of "Captain" in 1715.

October 9, 1716, Francis Coleman, Sr. and Francis Coleman, Jr., of Bristol Parish, Prince George County conveyed to John Coleman a tract of land "where on Now liveth," bounded on one side by the land of Robert Munford and extending the Appomattox River. Drury Bolling was a witness. Francis Coleman, Sr. used the mark "FC."

July 14, 1719, Prince George Co., Va., Michael, Irish servant or John Coleman, age adjudged. Jack, slave of John and Mary Coleman, was born February 6, 1726. Prince George Co., Va.

July 9, 1724. Land Patent Book 12, Page 64. John Coleman (#1.1.3) was granted 313 acres of land on the south side of Appomattox River in Prince George County – a tract of land called the Horsepen Branch.

Evidently John and Mary Coleman died before 1749, and their daughter, Mary Ligon Coleman, relocated to Cumberland County and lived with her guardian, Mathew Ligon, Sr., to whom she gave the release of all claim etc., in 1749.

4. William Coleman, Jr. (# 1.1.4)

Documentation that William Coleman, Jr., was the son of Robert Coleman is provided by William's 7 February 1710 Deed of Lease to Robert Munford – 100 acres by the name Haycocks in the county of Prince George bounded by John Coleman, James Anderson, William Coleman, Matthew Anderson, George Downing, Robert Tucker, Samuel Vaughan, the said land being given to the said William Coleman Junior by the last will and testament of his father Robert Coleman late of said county deceased baring the date of Seventeenth day of January in the year of 1710, Pages 14-18.

Given that Robert named his son William "Jr." rather than William "Sr.," it could be concluded that such was done to differentiate Robert's son from Robert's brother of the same name.

In addition, William's second wife Faith, relinquished her dower rights to the remaining portion of Haycocks in 1719 and her name in William Coleman's will of 1743 provides the link to positively identify William of Prince George as later William of Amelia.

This Wills and Deeds documentation of 1710 was not available to Judge James P. Coleman in his research for the book, The Robert Coleman Family from Virginia To Texas 1652 – 1965, written in 1965.

Prince George County Virginia Wills and Deeds of 1710 – 1713 were stolen during the Civil War and were not returned to Prince George until 1991, well after Judge James P. Coleman's book was written. Judge Coleman, therefore, did not know that William Coleman, Jr., was the son of Robert Coleman.

Additional details on William Coleman, Jr., can be found in Volume 1, Chapter 3. His will can be found in Volume 2, Appendix 4.

Chapter 3

William Coleman Jr. (Approx. 1680 – 1745)

William Coleman, Jr., (#1.1.4), who referred to himself as Senior in his 1743 will, was the son of Robert Coleman, first of Great Britain and then of Charles City County, Virginia, as documented in Volume 1, Chapter 2.

Prior to the re-discovery of the 1710 – 1713 documentation stolen during the Civil War, most genealogists believed that the father of William Coleman, Jr. was not Robert Coleman, but rather Robert's brother, William Coleman, Sr. This has now been disproven by the return of documents stolen during the Civil War, as mentioned in Volume 1, Chapter 2.

William's first wife was named Elizabeth or Elisa. This marriage is proved by the 13 February 1710, Deed of Release, William Coleman Jr. to Robert Munford, "This Indenture made this eight day of February in the year of Our Lord God 1710 between William Coleman Junior of the County of Prince George of the one part and Robert Munford of the same county of the other part Witnesseth that whereas the said William Coleman by indenture bearing date of day before the date of hereof and for the consideration herein expressed hath bargained and sold unto the said Robert Munford one tract parcel of land containing one hundred acres more or less called or known by the name of Haycocks situate lying and being in the County of Prince George. And there alone did Elisa the wife of the said William Coleman personally appear and being first privately examined according to the law freely relinquished her rights of dower to lands and premises within mentioned", Prince George County, Virginia, Wills and Deeds 1710 – 1713 Pages 15-16.

His second wife's name was Faith, but there is no record of her maiden name. Many believe, however, that her last name was Godfrey or Godphrey based on the name of her child of the same name. There is an inconsistency in the spelling of her child's name in the legal documents of that era. Some spell it "Godfrey" and others spell it "Godphrey".

Other researchers believe that Faith was the daughter of Rachel Rowlett and Godfrey Ragsdale (13 January 1644 – 5 May 1702). Godfrey Ragsdale died in Prince George County.

She is identified in William's will of 2 June, 1743, "I give and bequeath to Faith my wife the land and plantation whereon I now live during her natural life and at the end of her life to my son Peter. I also give my wife all my goods and chattles during her life and then to be equally divided between my two youngest sons Godphrey and Peter to them and their heirs forever".

Additional details on the will of William Coleman, Jr. (identified as Senior in his will), can be found in Volume 2, Appendix 4 of this book.

It is difficult to determine which early Virginia records refer to Robert Coleman's son William Coleman, Jr. (# 1.1.4), (identified as Senior in his will); which refer to the son of William Coleman Jr. (# 1.1.4.5), and which refer to Robert Coleman's brother, William Coleman, Sr., (# 1.4) referred to in this book as William Coleman (1639-1720) of Great Britain.

William Coleman, Sr. (1639-1720) of Great Britain was probably born in the 1630s, given that he first appears in Virginia in 1656. Some genealogists believe that he was born in Wales, England, and that he was one of the four brothers that came to Virginia. The location of his birth in Wales has not been proven.

His date of death is not known. The author concludes that he most likely died by 1720 given a life expectancy of eighty years.

Little is known of him, except that he was recorded in 1656 as being on the south side of the James River, in Charles City County, per Order Book, page 50. Charles City County, became Prince George County in 1703 and then became Amelia County in 1734

This is the same date Nicholas Coleman came to the County, Order Book, page 51, and the year following the arrival of Thomas Coleman in the same county, Order Book, page 39. It is understood that Nicholas Coleman later migrated to Pennsylvania. The original Order Book record may be lost or destroyed, for pages 1 to 176 are missing from the State Library of Virginia archives.

The next mention, after 1656, of William Coleman (1639-1720) of Great Britain in the court documents was in 1704 at which time William Coleman is shown in the Prince George County 1704 quit rent roll, where William Coleman, Jr. (son of Robert Coleman) also appears for the first time. It should be noted that the author believes that additional research is needed to further document the 48 year period between 1656 and 1704 for additional references on the three William Colemans.

As previously mentioned, William Coleman (# 1.4), (1639-1720) of Great Britain was the uncle of William Coleman, Jr. Some genealogists report that William Coleman, Jr. (identified as Senior in his will), was born on 10 April 1680 in Charles City County. No documentation as to this birth date has been found by the author.

Since (a) the date of William Coleman Senior's (1639-1720) of Great Britain death is not precisely known, and since (b) the birth date of William Coleman Jr. (identified as Senior in his will), is not precisely known, and (c) the birth date of the son of William Coleman Jr., is not precisely known, it is difficult to determine which of the three William Colemans are referred to in the land records summarized below.

We do know that (a) William Coleman, Jr. (identified as Senior in his will), did write his will on 2 June, 1743; that (b) he did have a son named William, and that (c) William Coleman (# 1.4) of Great Britain, having been born by 1639, most likely died by 1720 given a life expectancy of eighty years.

Therefore, the author has developed the following guide to assist researchers in their review of court documents:

- Documents Dated Between 1656 and 1680
  - William Coleman refers to William Coleman, (# 1.4), (1639-1720) who was born in Great Britain.
- Documents Dated Between 1680 and 1720
  - William Coleman or William Coleman, Sr., refers to William Coleman of Great Britain (# 1.4).
  - William Coleman, Jr., refers to William (# 1.1.4) who was born on 10 April 1680.
- Documents Dated After 1720
  - William Coleman or William Coleman, Sr., refers to William (# 1.1.4) who was born on 10 April 1680.
  - William Coleman, Jr., refers to William (# 1.1.4.5) who was named as a beneficiary in William Coleman's will of 2 June, 1743.

Between 1712 and 1730 some 1,922 acres were acquired by William Coleman or his nephew in several tracts in what is now northwestern Dinwiddie and eastern Amelia Counties. During this period of time he moved to the west side of Nansemond (Namozine) Creek, which is today the border between the two counties.

1704- William Coleman is shown in the Prince George County 1704 quit rent roll, where William Coleman, Jr. also appears for the first time.

19 May 1712- Robert Bolling surveyed 100 acres on the west side of Namozine creek, below the path for William Coleman. This creek was then in Prince George, but since 1753 has been the boundary between Dinwiddie and Amelia Counties. Prince George County, Virginia, Deeds Reel 751, Library of Virginia.

21 May 1712- 185 acres were surveyed for William Coleman on the East side of the great branch of Whipponock Creek, now in northwestern Dinwiddie County but near the Amelia County line.

6 December 1715- 154 acres were surveyed for William Coleman, Sr., on the West side of Namozine, Prince George County, Virginia, Deeds, Reel 753, Library of Virginia.

15 July 1717- William Coleman, Sr., was granted 100 acres on the west side of Nansemond (the correct spelling is Namozine) Creek in Prince George County, Patent Book 10, page 339, Library of Virginia.

9 November 1719- William Coleman of Prince George County conveyed to Robert Munford 118 acres bounded on one side by land which formerly belonged to Francis Coleman. He signed by mark 'W', and Drury Bolling was a witness. Prince George County, Virginia, Reel 367, Library of Virginia.

10 November 1719- Faith, wife of William, relinquished her dower right. William Coleman acknowledged deed of land to Robert Munford. Prince George County, Court Orders and Returns of Executions, page 292. Transcribed by Benjamin B. Weisiger. Magazine of Virginia Genealogy, Volume 25, February, 1987, Number 1, page 49.

9 February 1720- 297 acres were surveyed for William Coleman, Sr., on the upper side of Winticomack Creek. This is in present Amelia County, in the extreme eastern portion thereof, in the neck which extends between Chesterfield County on the North and Dinwiddie County on the South. Prince George County, Virginia, Deeds, Reel 757, Library of Virginia.

William Coleman, Jr., identified as Senior in his will, (1680 – 1745) and Faith had seven children according to his will: Daniel, Robert, Joseph, William, Godfrey or Godphrey, Peter and Frances. These children were all named in William Senior's will of 2 June 1743.

6. Ann Coleman (# 1.1.4.7.6) born in 1760.
7. Mary Coleman (# 1.1.4.7.7) born in 1764.

Peter Coleman Sr.'s baptism record is found in Bristol Parish Register as "Peter, 6th son of Wm and Faith Coleman", christened 9 February 17 [...]. The last digits are unreadable. His date of birth is estimated as being twenty years prior to his marriage to Martha Archer.

Peter Coleman Sr. was a landowner in Amelia County, Virginia, according to the following legal records:

Amelia County, Virginia, Deed Book 3, page 212. Deed dated 4 September 1751. James Bevill, Ann (X) Bevill, William Bevill, Edward Bevill, Joseph Bevill, William (X) Bevill (of Amelia County) & John Bevill of Chesterfield County, Virginia, to Edward Tanner. Bevills on April 10, 1751. Wits: Daniel Coleman, Godfrey Coleman & Peter (X) Coleman. "Godfrey" or "Godphrey" (given name) Coleman (# 1.1.4.6) was Peter's brother. In addition, this deed establishes that Peter Coleman, Sr. was unable to write since he signed as Peter (P his mark) Coleman.

Amelia County. Deed Book 8, page 22. Deed dated 24 November 1762 from Matthew Tucker, Jr., and Rachel, his wife, of Amelia, to Thomas Beary of King William County, for 23 Pounds, a certain tract of land of 75 acres bounded by Tuckers Branch, Thomas Hood, Peter Coleman, Matthew Tucker, Sr., Signed - Matthew Tucker, Rachel Tucker. Witnesses - none. Recorded on November 25, 1762.

Amelia County, Deed Book 9, page 46. Deed dated 16 August 1766 from Peter Coleman, Sr., of Amelia, to Henry Tucker of Amelia, for 8 Pounds, a certain tract of land of about 25 acres in Amelia, & bounded by Richard Talley, Thomas Tucker, Matthew Tucker, Sr., Francis Tucker, Jr.. Signed, Peter (P his mark) Coleman, Martha (M her mark) Coleman. Witnesses Thomas Berry, John Hood, Matthew (X his mark) Tucker. The deed was acknowledged by Peter Coleman and Martha, his wife. Recorded on 25 September 1766. This deed establishes that Martha Coleman was unable to write since she signed as Martha (M her mark) Coleman.

Deed. Peter Coleman, Sr. of Amelia Co. to Thomas Tucker Of same. D. Aug. 16, 1766. Consid: 26/5/0. 80 acres adj. Tucker's Branch, lines of Michael Clardy, Thomas Berry, William Coleman, Peter Coleman, Henry Tucker and Matthew Tucker, Sr. Thomas Berry, John Hood & Matthew (X) Tucker. Recorded: Sept. 25, 1766. Martha (X), wife of Peter Coleman, Sr. relinquished her dower right. Amelia County Deeds, Deed Book 10 and 11, 1766 – 1773, Abstracted and Compiled by Gibson Jefferson McConnaughey.

Deed. Peter (X) Coleman, Sr. of Amelia Co. to Henry Tucker of same. D. Aug. 16, 1766. Consid: 58. 25 acres adj. lines of Richard Talley, Thomas Tucker, Matthew Tucker, Sr. and Francis Tucker, Jr. Wits: Thomas Berry, John Hood & Matthew (X) Tucker, Jr. Recorded: Sept. 25, 1766. Martha (X), wife of Peter Coleman, Sr., relinquished her dower right. Amelia County Deeds, Deed Book 10 and 11, 1766 – 1773, Abstracted and Compiled by Gibson Jefferson McConnaughey.

Peter Coleman left a Will dated 23 May 1793, which was proved on 24 September 1795. The will of Peter Coleman, Sr., found in Amelia County, Virginia, Will Book 5, Page 109, and Volume 2, Appendix 11 of this book, states "I give and bequeath to my daughter Fanny Coleman the land and plantation whereon I now live". It is concluded that "Fanny" is a substitute for the more formal "Frances" since Fanny is a diminutive of the French name Frances meaning "free one".

Fanny Coleman was also named by Peter as the Executrix of the estate, a responsibility she declined after his death. Solomon Coleman, Peter's son, was appointed by the court to the position instead. Peter's estate was appraised in 1795 or 1796 per Amelia County Will Book 5, 1793-1799, pages 5,10. Virginia State Library, Land Office Grants No. 52, 1809-1804, page 498, reel 118. This document therefore establishes Frances (known as Fanny) as Peter Coleman, Sr.'s daughter.

Peter married Martha Archer on June 25 June 1740, and had four proven children and three unproven children. Martha is named as Peter Coleman's wife in the deed appearing in Book 9, Pages 44 and 46, dated 16 August 1766 . Peter's will also named Martha as his wife.

Solomon was documented by the Court as the replacement Executor of Peter Coleman's will. Also, in Land Deed Book 16, Page 140, "for love and affection," Peter sold 50 acres of land to his son, Solomon Coleman. This was 4 October, 1782. These two documents establish Solomon as Peter Coleman, Sr.'s son.

Isaac Coleman was later documented, along with Solomon Coleman, in a "Peace Bond" of 24 May 1792, Deed Book 19, page 162, and Volume 1, Appendix 10, of this book. Also, on August 9, 1784, Isaac Coleman deeded land to Solomon Coleman, Book 17, Page 94 and 2. These two documents establish Isaac as Peter Coleman, Sr.'s son.

The last proven child of Peter Coleman, Sr., was Peter Coleman, Jr., who was first identified in the 1764 Amelia County Tax List of Wood Jones which details Deep Creek. Deep Creek is located in Raleigh Parish. Raleigh Parish was located in the southern part of Amelia County which later became Nottoway County.

This listing shows both Peter Coleman, Sr., and Peter Coleman, Jr., together, an indicator that they are related. The "Jr." establishes the relationship. The 1764 Tax List is shown below:

Peter Coleman Peter Coleman Jr.	250
--	------------

*1764 Amelia County Tax List
First Record of Peter Coleman, Jr.*

The father and son were again shown together in the 1765 Amelia County Tax List of William Cranley which details Raleigh Parish.

*1765 Amelia County Tax List
Second Record Of Both Peter Colemans*

The last dual listing of both father and son was the 1769 Amelia County Tax List of John Booker for Raleigh Parish and Vivion Brooking for the lower part of Raleigh Parish.

Peter Coleman, Jr.'s cousins Joseph, John, Sutton, Francis, and Page Mann were also all listed by Vivion Brooking for the lower part of Raleigh Parish.

A "Peter Coleman" was listed by Vivion Brooking in the 1770 Amelia County Tax List for the lower part of Raleigh Parish. There were no Peter Colemans listed by John Booker. It cannot be concluded, however, until 1778, as to which Peter Coleman (Sr. or Jr.) was so listed in 1770 by Ms. Brooking.

Peter Coleman was again absent from the 1778 Amelia County Tax List of John Booker for Raleigh Parish. Vivion Brooking in 1778 for the lower part of Raleigh Parish did jointly list Peter Coleman along with Isaac Coleman and Solomon Coleman. Since there was no "Sr. or Jr." designator, such must be determined by deductive reasoning.

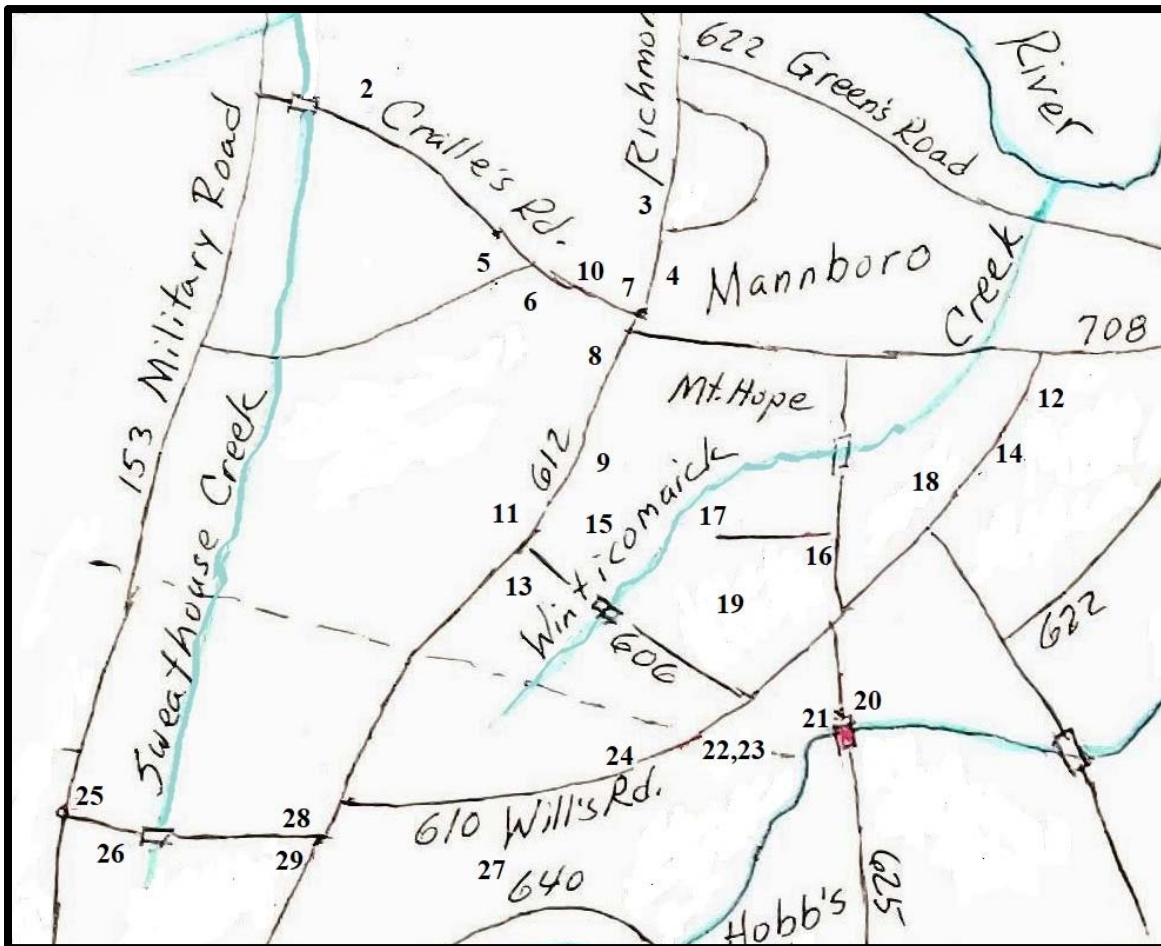

Since Solomon was documented by the Court as the replacement Executor of Peter Coleman, Sr.'s will and since Peter Coleman, Sr., sold 50 acres of land to his son, Solomon Coleman on 4 October, 1782, it is reasonable to conclude that the Peter Coleman referred to in Vivion Brooking tax list of 1778 was in fact, Peter Coleman Sr. and that Peter Coleman, Jr., had left Amelia County between 1769 and 1770.

An additional three children, i.e. William (born in 1744), Ann (born in 1760) and Mary (born in 1764) have been cited by other genealogists as the children of Peter Coleman, Sr., but source documentation has not been found by the author.

No further information is available for William or Mary, but it is known that Ann married John Neal on 31 December 1777. Ann and John had a son, Archibald Archer Neal (# 1.1.4.7.6.1) in 1778. Archibald married Nancy Ann Pollard 23 March 1803. Archibald and Nancy's daughter, Susan Ann Neal (# 1.1.4.7.6.1.1), was born in 1805 and went on to marry William Coleman (# 1.1.4.5.7), her first cousin, twice removed and guardian beginning at the age of ten. Archibald died in 1815.

There are three landmarks in Amelia County, Virginia with direct ties to Peter Coleman and his descendants.
