Baltimore, Maryland 21222

Dear Doris.

I just want to say we sure did enjoy Sunday. I am afraid seem we never knew the Coleman so well as we did the Hawks must have been because our Grand mother died so young.

Also want to tell you I told you wrong about Phillip P. Hill. I went to the Court House today and in looking for another marriage found when he was married to Sarah E. Paschall on the 22 Oct 1857 by N.A. Pufey M.C. Also found when (widow) Sarah E. Hill married J. William Henry Paschall. 23 April 1866 by S.C. Perkinson M.C.

So then went back to the Will Book and in Book 50 page 70 Phillip P. Hill which says after just debts are paid and then I leave to my beloved wife Sarah Elizabeth all of my estate real and personal during her life or widowhood and at her death or marriage it then belongs to Levi P. Coleman should he be living at the time if not to his Children to be equally divided among them each to share and share alike. those that ~~may~~ may be living at her death or marriage (and so on).

Sorry I had that wrong.

Thank you again for all you did to get Sunday phone
Thank you.

Dear Mr. Coleman,

I talked to you a couple of years back about your book and I am just now getting back to you about my family line. I am a descendant of Lizzy Coleman and Jonathan King, Sr. through their grandson, Elbert King, who married Martha H. Coleman and moved to Tyro, Lincoln Co., AR about 1872.

Peter Coleman names his children in his will:

Lizey King (already married to Jonathan King in 1793.)

Peter Coleman

Murtilla King (already married to, possibly, Joseph King, Jonathan's brother.)

Carter Coleman

Thompson Jonas Coleman (a minor)

Sally Williams (already married)

Betsy Coleman ( a minor who is proven to be Elizabeth Jackson Coleman in the estate papers guardian records.)

Lizzy is not Elizabeth the minor. Betsy is also a nickname for Elizabeth. There are guardian papers for both Thompson Jonas and Betsy until 1813 showing they were both born 1794 or after. Lizzy married in 1793 and would have been born about 1773-7. On page 81 of your book, you list Betsy as unknown and Elizabeth Jackson as Lizzy.

FYI, I believe that Murtilla Coleman had married Joseph King, even though there are no records of this. Joseph was the next youngest brother of Jonathan and was bondsman for Jonathan and Lizzy's marriage. Also, in Peter Coleman's estate papers is a receipt from Samuel Thompson for money owed to Jonathan King in Warren Co., NC that is signed for by Joseph King.

Also, on page 87 under children of Carter Coleman, for Lorena and Anthony, they did have Alexander, but not Elbert. Elbert was Griselda Catherine King's brother. Estate Papers for Jonathan King, Jr., who died in 1842, lists his children as: Amanda King wife of Alfred King, Catherine King wife of Alexander King, Medicus King, Feign King, Matilda King, Albert (Elbert) King, Ella Jane (Eli Jay) King, Tira King, and three children from his second wife, Mary, James, and Nancy King. All minors under age 21 except Amanda and Catherine. These minor children are residing with Alexander and Catherine on the 1850 census. This has caused a lot of confusion among researchers who have not had access to the estate papers. I have posted pictures of the abstracts of the estate papers on the profiles of Jonathan, Sr. and Jonathan, Jr. on Ancestry on my family tree, Allhudler.

I hope this clears up some confusion. Now, if I can only get these other researchers to fix the errors on their trees. Wish me luck.

Marriage records for Jonathan,<sup>Jr.</sup>
1818, Apr 15 Johnathan King to Polly White. Matthew King bondsman.
1833, Aug 21 Jonathan King to Sally White. Charles King, bondsman
Obviously there were two marriages for him. I have the whole will index and deed index, all the marriage bonds brides & grooms, some abstracted deeds, most all the wills, all the estate records, etc... I will be happy to share all this with you, if you want it. Right now, I do not know who is your ancestor since you mentioned two Kings who married King girls, the daus. of Jonathan. Let me know, please.
Here is my family:
